Have you ever thought about becoming general manager of a hotel? Or about opening your own restaurant or business? This is your chance to get a clear insight in what managing a hotel is all about! In this position you support the General Manager with running the daily operations and work on different projects. You must be creative in coming up with several ways to handle challenges well, impress our guests and balance spending your time in supporting various departments in both front and back of the house. ## What else will you be doing?

We hope you are open-minded to change; not one day is the same when working with us. Your tasks and responsibilities vary from daily/weekly tasks to one off events and projects. The day starts with a hotel round and offering assistance in the operations when needed. Usually followed by preparing the handover to your colleagues about "what's going on" in the hotel and answering comments our guests left behind on our satisfaction questionnaires. Each week you will join the meeting where all activities for next week are discussed and do a tour of the house to check and report on cleanliness/maintenance. You will organize events such as; New Year's Eve party, Easter brunch and the Haring Party. This position is full of responsibilities that you will discover during your time with us.

A people's person: that's who you are. You enjoy working with a great variety of people in a team as well as independently. You understand the importance of communication and you are good at it, both in Dutch and in English. Being pro-active is what you are well known for.
