

THE STUDENT HOTEL

Summer Sales Intern

We are looking for Summer Sales Interns to join our ambitious, hard-working and fun summer sales team. The roles will blend a mix of great learning opportunities and hands-on experience. As an Intern, you will work on a wide variety of tasks supporting our summer semester marketing period.

In case you don't know who we are (ahem):

TSH is a game-changer. Our unique hotel concept offers student accommodation as well as long and short stay options for students-at-heart, together with epic facilities and exciting co-working spaces. This creates a dynamic, fun, creative environment and brings people of all backgrounds together. The Student Hotel is a hub of awesome, positive vibes – and with properties popping up all over Europe as we speak, our vibes are spreading!

Your responsibilities will include:

- Giving tours and selling rooms to prospective students;
- Supporting the digital marketing of our rooms for next semester;
- Engaging with prospective customers through a variety of digital and social channels;
- General administrative support for the sales team;
- The opportunity to take up a longer term project covering the entire internship.

We are recruiting interns in both Amsterdam, Rotterdam, The Hague, Groningen, Eindhoven and Maastricht. Some travel within the Netherlands may be necessary. This is a full-time internship, which will last for 3 months, from 1st June 2018, with an option to extend. Lunch, coffee, fruit, snacks and beer will also be provided.

Desired Skills and Experience

For this internship you must be a current student enrolled at university in a related field and be legally allowed to work in The Netherlands. We are looking for someone who is bursting with enthusiasm, could sell sand to a camel, and who has a passion for marketing. Other skills include:
