

SWIPE RIGHT. YOU'VE FOUND THE ONE.

Want a work situation that you really love? Come talk to us. penta isn't like any other hotel you know. Difference drives us, in every corner of the hotel, in everything we say. Not difference for the sake of it, but because we recognise that this is what our customers – penta people – truly want.

Take the pentalounge. It redefines what a hotel lobby can be: fun, friendly, relaxed. A cocktail when you check in, a game of billiards, a heartfelt friendly greeting. When people connect with us, they come back for more. And we make sure we're relaxed and open, because it makes our guests feel relaxed too. We wear jeans and talk to each other like friends would, all the way up to the managing director. We are Team penta.
