

Operational Internship – Cook

	Internship		Portugal, London
	Operations – F&B		English, Portuguese (optional)
	Summer Internship		3-6 months
	Compensation included		On-duty meals

The Operational Internship as Cook can range from 3 to 6 months. You will help to 'make it happen' the menus that the Chef and the kitchen team idealize. In this internship you can put to the test your talent and help the team achieve the necessary quality for the customer. The intensity and fast pace of the kitchen will energize you and, therefore, you may understand the importance of team work in the organization of the operational work in order to fulfil the priorities and the expected volume of service.

You may also understand that it is essential to keep track of the budget and keep costs in check by collaborating on proper preparation and execution of the menus. Cleaning, compliance with safety rules and participation in the proper storage and conservation of raw materials are other items that you may attend in the day-to-day work in this internship.

You will become part of our enthusiastic, professional and experienced team and become friends with colleagues from different backgrounds. We are confident this will unquestionably be a unique experience for international hospitality enthusiasts who are seeking an understanding of the hospitality industry.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Supporting the kitchen operation on the daily tasks and duties;
- Proactive support to the kitchen team in the field of banquettes and à la carte;
- Support in ordering, receiving and controlling goods;
- Learn to have a cost-conscious use of all products and materials;
- Attend to the hygiene conditions of all the food and materials, kitchen areas and other spaces., always ensuring its adequate cleaning, as well as carry out the other HACCP control – product validity control , cold and hot temperatures, etc.

Requirements & Preferences

- Currently studying Hospitality or related professional degree;
- Previous internship experience preferred;
- Being flexible to travel in Portugal and Europe;
- Attitude of commitment and passion;
- Fun at work and willingness to contribute your own ideas, creativity and love for the product
- Enthusiasm and flexibility;
- Attention to detail and good team player.