

Operational Internship – Waiter

	Internship		Portugal
	Operations – F&B		English, Portuguese (optional)
	Summer Internship		3-6 months
	Compensation included		On-duty meals

The Operational Internship as Waiter can range from 2 a 6 months, is all about learning to perform a service where you can apply all your warm nature and attention to detail. You will experience to run a quality service and full of great operational intensity.

You may also understand the importance of collaborating in the pre-work of preparation of the rooms and arrangement of the tables for the various meal services, as well as the collaboration in the management of the stocks.

In our various F&B outlets you will become part of our enthusiastic, professional and experienced team and become friends with colleagues from different backgrounds. We are confident this will unquestionably be a unique experience for international hospitality enthusiasts who are seeking an understanding of the hospitality industry.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Supporting the F&B outlets operation on the daily tasks and duties;
- Welcome customers, assist and advise them, suggesting drinks, snacks, etc.;
- Collaborate in the correct preparation of the "mise-en-place", assembly of buffets for breakfasts and other meal services, so that the client does not identify any faults;
- Collaborate in banqueting services;
- Check the stocks of products in stock, taking into account the anticipated needs, in order to pass this information to the direct supervisors so that they can make the respective requisitions;
- Attend to the hygiene conditions of all the material, support areas and other spaces - Restaurant, bar, event rooms, etc., always ensuring its adequate cleaning, as well as carry out the other HACCP control – product validity control, cold and hot temperatures, etc.

Requirements & Preferences

- Currently studying Hospitality or related professional degree;
- Previous internship experience preferred;
- Being flexible to travel in Portugal and Europe;
- Knowledge of MICROS preferred;
- Attitude of commitment and passion for work
- Strong communication skills;
- Enthusiasm and flexibility;
- Attention to detail and good team player