

I DEVELOP POTENTIAL

Do you want to shape the future of Adina Hotels on a regional level?

You'll get a first-hand opportunity to contribute to the building and implementation of the strategic agenda in Europe as one of our Head Office Interns from August 2020 onwards.

We need conceptual thinkers with an affinity for communication and a passion for media and people, who strengthen the foundation of success for the business and the people behind it.

As an Online Marketing Intern you'll be managing the company website und blogs, create content for social media as well as support the execution of omni channel marketing.

As a Talent Development Intern you'll manage online learning content, organize recruitment events and develop marketing and development tools to help talent grow from within the organization.

Your eye for detail, hands-on attitude and pleasure of putting thoughts and feelings into words will enable you to work independently but also become a key part of the team, making a real difference.

Ideal for diploma/hotel school students who want to put their learning into practice for min 6 months you'll have a chance to gain insights into entrepreneurial practices and corporate leadership.

FIND MORE

Recognized as a leading brand of premier quality, inner city apartment hotels, Adina Apartment Hotels offer spacious and stylish accommodation combined with lifestyle facilities. Adina is one of five established brands operated by TFE Hotels (Toga Far East Hotels), Australia's international hotel group headquartered in Sydney.

Adina Hotels is truly yours to make but you'll need to be resourceful and ready to jump on in. If you're looking for flexibility and thrive when you're empowered to run the show, then we're the place for you.

We're on a first name basis around here and there's nothing we can't achieve when we work together as a team of individuals.

With currently eleven hotels in Germany, Denmark and Hungary and 50 properties in the pipeline for Germany and neighbouring countries by 2025, Adina provides exciting longterm career opportunities.
